Teacher

Venue Day and Time

In order to comply with the BWY policy and insurance requirements, any young person under the age of 18 attending the above mentioned yoga classes must be accompanied at all times by a parent or guardian, or failing that somebody elected by the parent or guardian to act in loco parentis. This means that the child must be accompanied to, from and during each lesson. The young person may not arrive at class before the parent or guardian (or responsible adult acting in loco parentis) and may not leave the class after the parent or guardian (or person acting in loco parentis).

This is because a) in the eyes of the law young people under the age of 18 are termed young persons and b) the teacher does not hold a CRB Enhanced Disclosure certificate enabling him /her to teach young persons unaccompanied by a responsible adult.

The lessons in questions are intended for adults and are therefore only open to young people aged ____ and over (at the discretion of the teacher). Therefore, young people attending these classes will be expected to act in an adult manner throughout.

Young people joining the classes will initially be required to attend for a minimum of two weeks on a trial basis on both sides, after which time agreement is to be reached between the teacher, young person and parent or guardian as to whether or not the young person continues. The young person will be expected to display a genuine interest in and enthusiasm for yoga during the trial period if s/he wishes to continue.
