Yoga in the Age of Overload

Rajesh David is a certified yoga teacher trained at The Yoga Institute in Mumbai, India, and an accomplished composer and singer.

Specialising in Nada Yoga, he combines his expertise in Indian classical music with yoga practice, creating experiences that bridge cultures and awaken the transformative power of sound.

Having begun his yoga journey at a young age, Rajesh's teaching is deeply rooted in the philosophy of the Upanishads and the Advaita tradition, emphasising both practical techniques and their philosophical foundations.
